

WILDERNESS DANCE

a project from the kedja network

First announcement

Call for applications starts on June 18th through www.kedja.net

Wilderness dance is a unique residency opportunity for contemporary dance companies. Residencies in communities on the edge of the Nordic/Baltic region offer artists a platform to explore, engage, create and present work in close proximity to wild nature.

- 10 artistic groups will be chosen.
- Residencies will take place in 10 different communities in 5 countries, Iceland, Denmark, Finland, Norway and Latvia
- Each company will go to 2 x 21 day residencies in two different countries.
- The residency period will start in January 2013

5 countries – 10 companies– 10 communities - 20 residencies
The call will be open to artists from all eight Nordic and Baltic countries and starts June 18th 2012 through the kedja website www.kedja.net .

Looking forward to meeting you in the Wilderness!
Partners of Wilderness

Iceland

SL Independent theatres

Performing Arts Iceland

Ása Richardsdóttir, project leader

Denmark

BORA BORA | Dans og visuelt teater

Jesper de Neergaard, co-organizer

Finland

MAD Production

Sari Palmgren, co-organizer

Norway

Dansearena nord

Susanne Næss Nielsen, co-organizer

Latvia

New Theatre Institute of Latvia

Laura Stasane, co-organizer

Wilderness is supported by

Partners

 dansearena nord

BORA BORA
DANS OG VISUELT TEATER

